WOMEN'S SOLIDARITY BAZAAR

We believe in the power of collective effort!

Istanbul Elsewhere is organizing a Women's Solidarity Bazaar on Sunday, March 26th at Round Chapel, Hackney, in solidarity with the women affected by the recent earthquakes in Turkey. This event calls for us to come together, unite over street food, craft products, and music for women in need. All proceeds from the ticket sales, product sales, and solidarity tickets, which are also available for those who are not in London, will go towards meeting the needs of women identified by our solidarity partner, the Women's Coalition Turkey. Get your ticket now and let's support the needs of women affected by the earthquake together.

WOMEN'S COALITION TURKEY

Women's Coalition Turkey is an organisation that brings together the women and women's organisations who have been fighting for equality, freedom, and justice since 2000. It advocates for peace, freedom, and equality, and is against violence. It uses an inclusive and solution-oriented approach in all its works. It is in favour of human rights and is against all forms of discrimination. We are here for solidarity! "We are here with all our organizing capacity all over Turkey to share our experiences and take part in citizen collaboration."

FEMINIST NIGHT MARCH

The Feminist Night March brings more and more women together every year. It reminds us once again of the power of feminist solidarity. Although women in many cities organize night marches on March 8th, the first Feminist Night March was held in Taksim in 2003 upon the call of feminists. Since then, feminists have been organizing this march every March 8th. The aim of the march is to voice feminist demands on International Women's Day, March 8th, and to show that women do not leave the streets and nights. The march also holds the distinction of being the largest feminist action organized in Turkey.

SARA AHMED, “LIVING A FEMINIST LIFE”

“In Living a Feminist Life Sara Ahmed shows how feminist theory is generated from everyday life and the ordinary experiences of being a feminist at home and at work. Building on legacies of feminist of color scholarship in particular, Ahmed offers a poetic and personal meditation on how feminists become estranged from worlds they critique-often by naming and calling attention to problems-and how feminists learn about worlds from their efforts to transform them.

Ahmed also provides her most sustained commentary on the figure of the feminist killjoy introduced in her earlier work while showing how feminists create inventive solutions-such as forming support systems-to survive the shattering experiences of facing the walls of racism and sexism. The killjoy survival kit and killjoy manifesto, with which the book concludes, supply practical tools for how to live a feminist life thereby strengthening the ties between the inventive creation of feminist theory and living a life that sustains it.”
